ABOUT SHEREE VICKERS

Sheree is a very experienced drama teacher, facilitator, writer and director - with over 12 years experience in leading groups of all ages and abilities. Aside from training those interested in the acting profession, she has also spent a great deal of time working within the education system and community developing theatre projects with people who might not always have access to the arts. Aside from being the current Artistic Director at SAVVY Theatre Company, she has also facilitated workshops for LONDON BUBBLE, POLKA THEATRE, the SHAKESPEARE SCHOOLS FESTIVAL, the SOHO THEATRE Writers Festival, MOUSETRAP THEATRE PROJECTS and was the Education Officer at UNICORN THEATRE.

Sheree has written numerous magazine articles and teacher reference materials on her work within the SEN classroom. She is also the author of several books including the ACTIVE DRAMA PLAYSRIPTS series, DRAMA SCRIPTS FOR PEOPLE WITH SPECIAL NEEDS and THE STORIES WITHIN.

As an actress she has performed at festivals and theatres around the world. Her unique skills have been featured on V. GRAHAM NORTON, THE BIG BREAKFAST and FUNNY BUSINESS for LWT. Aside from touring theatres around Great Britain and working the fringes in Canada, Sheree has also acted with companies in London, the USA and with Queensland's National Theatre Company in Australia.

Sheree is a trained Arts Award Advisor, has completed her Appointed Persons 1st Aid Certificate and is a Licensed Chaperone (approved by Surrey County Council).

ABOUT SAVVY THEATRE COMPANY

SAVVY started in 2001 with four teenage pupils, passionate about drama and performance.

Since then the initial group has grown into a respected company, producing unique and challenging theatre projects, with performances at a wide range of venues including the Oval House Theatre in London, the Harlequin Theatre in Redhill, the Electric Theatre in Guildford and locally at the Charles Cryer, Warehouse and Secombe theatres.
